

How to update your window coverings

Friday, 27 June 2008

Last Updated Saturday, 28 June 2008

Converting your existing window coverings into that ultimate sleek modern look can sometimes appear to a daunting task. One of the first considerations when looking at updating your home or window coverings is to determine what type of feel you are trying to obtain.. Many magazines these days show modern, stylish finishes to a room , unfortunately these pictures or layouts aren't always practical because at the end of the day, we all must live in our homes. Simplicity , Functionality and Style The most important aspect when considering blinds, roller blinds , curtains or drapes is to ensure that your new product will be functional and serviceable, once you have established this, next determine what window covering will create that feel and look that you are after..

- Roller blinds and blinds will create a very modern sharp look on the window whilst maintaining functionality, with the numerous choices of materials now available it is very easy to update your window coverings in this style
- Curtains, Drapes and sheers are all very much a window covering that will create a softer but traditional feel to the room, many decorators are now combining drapes , sheers and roller blinds to complete that window look. Again we are now experiencing a lot of new materials from suppliers being introduced on the Australian market. The choice or design and composition has never been so abundant..
- Other window furnishings to consider to create your makeover would be roman blinds, timber blinds, swags and tails , shutters and plantation shutters . New window coverings at a fraction of the cost.. Updating your Curtains, Drapes, Blinds, Shutters or window coverings doesn't need to be at a huge cost. At Curtain Court our consultants are well aware of the importance of showing you a product that is functional but also remains within your budget. Many designs of timber blinds, plantation shutters and roller blinds all have varying degrees of costings &ndash; Call one of our experienced consultants today to arrange a measure and quote..

Save on Blackout Roller blinds If you are considering selling your home then updating your window coverings at a minimal amount of costs is a major benefit to the sale of your home. With the many roller blind and curtains available today, it has become very cost efficient to update your home whilst not spending a large amount of money to do so. Blinds or Venetians are the most affordable product on the market when adding value to your home..