

Fashionable new roller blind fabrics

Thursday, 03 July 2008

Last Updated Thursday, 03 July 2008

Latest Roller Blind Fabrics

Roller blind materials have always generally been on the plainer side of designs, with most manufacturers and suppliers tending to opt for plain non textured appearances. This has changed dramatically over the last few years with many textured cloths being introduced onto the Australian market place.

Let our consultants at CurtainCourt show you all the new roller blind fabrics that are available in the comfort of your own home. Call now to arrange for in house consultataion - No obligation quotation for your new blinds - 03 5986 6487 To Texture a roller blind or keep it plain and simple Textured roller blind and roman blind materials are here to stay, fantastic new modern designs for all window treatments.

- With the introduction of these fabrics for blinds , roller blinds and roman blinds we are now seeing a definite shift in the way that our window coverings or window treatments are being shown in display houses and ultimately making it into residential properties.

- Many of the new materials for blinds and roller blinds are either full blackout or translucent with each supplier opting for a slightly different base cloth or slight texture or full slub effect.

- One of the main benefits when using these on any window treatment or window covering is that we are now able to achieve many different styles of looks that previously were always only possible when using curtain materials as a bonded blind or as a custom made roman blind. . New window coverings at a fraction of the cost.. Updating your Curtains, Drapes, Blinds, Shutters or window coverings doesn't need to be at a huge cost. At Curtain Court our consultants are well aware of the importance of showing you a product that is functional but also remains within your budget. Many designs of timber blinds, plantation shutters and roller blinds all have varying degrees of costings – Call one of our experienced consultants today to arrange a measure and quote..

Save on Blackout Roller blinds If you are considering selling your home then updating your window coverings at a minimal amount of costs is a major benfit to the sale of your home. With the many roller blind and curtains available today, it has become very cost efficient to update your home whilst not spending a large amount of money to do so. Blinds or Venetians are the most affordable product on the market when adding value to your home..